

First Screen: List all the author in the database.

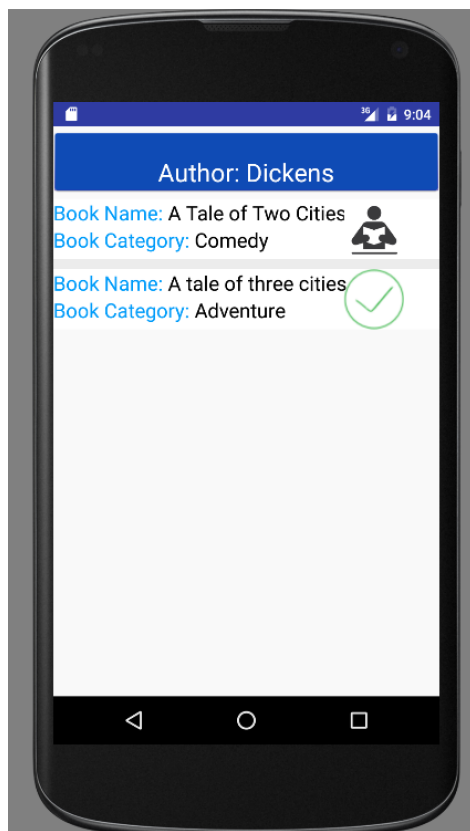

Second Screen: Display the list of books by their category.

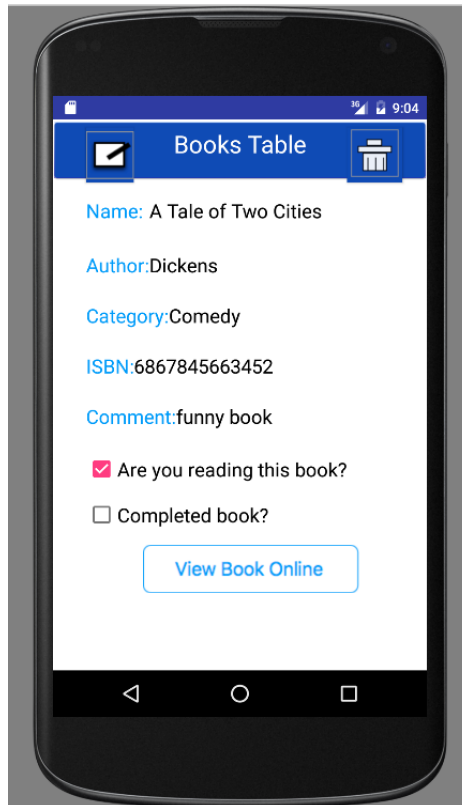

Spinner: This allows the user to select a category, which then displays all the books that have that category.

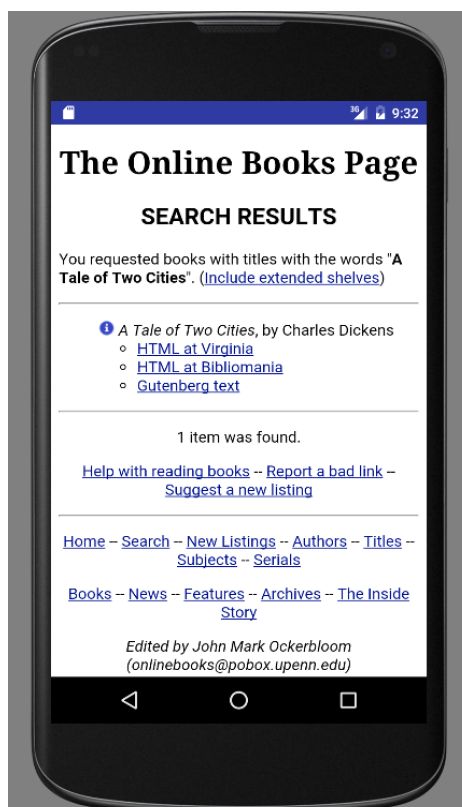

Screen 3: When the users selects an author from screen 1, it shows all the books associated with that specific author. Also as an extra function, if the user holds down on a list item, the book will be deleted from the database.

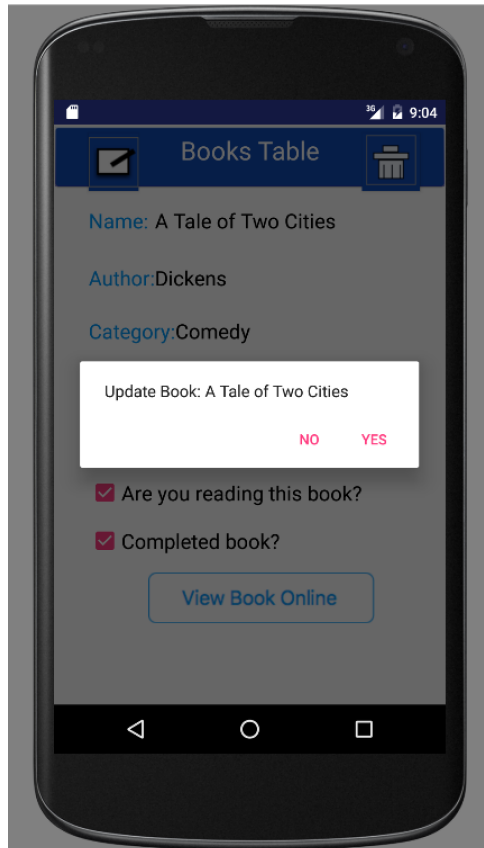

Screen 4: When the user selects a book, it shows all the relevant information about the book, here the user has the ability to update the book information, delete the book, or view the book online.

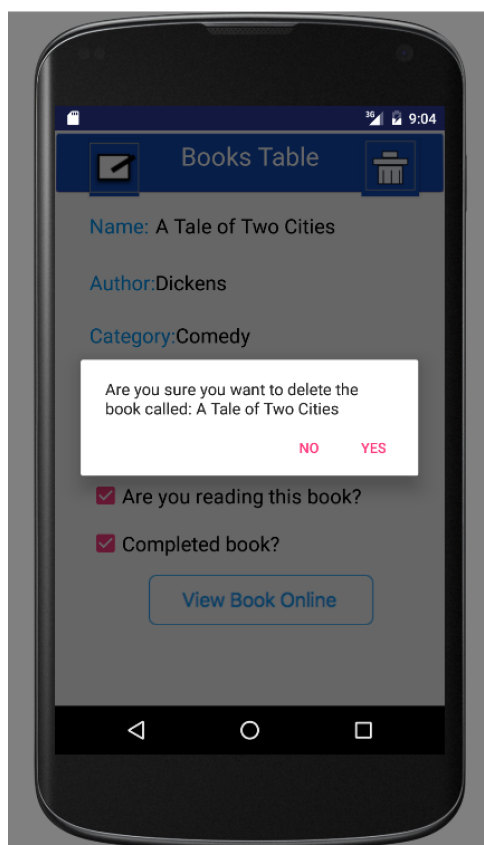

Screen 5: When the user selects view book online, it opens the web view and searches the book online.

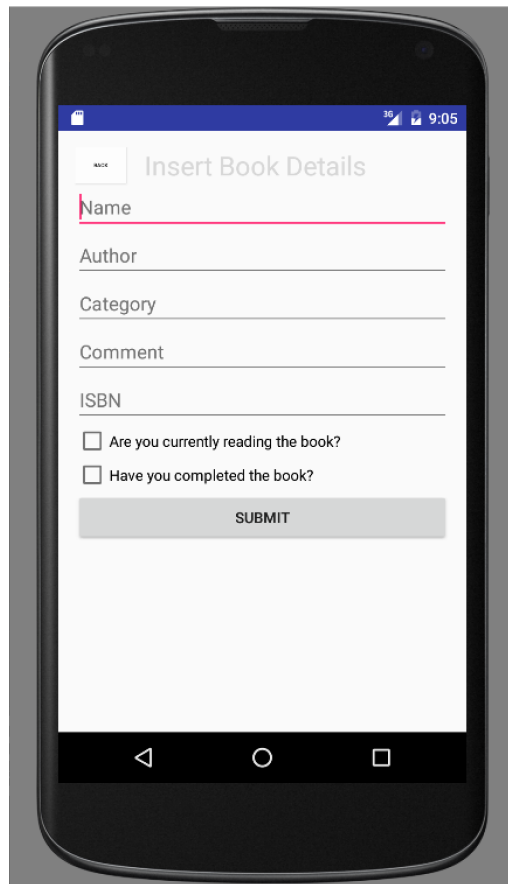

Screen 4: User has the ability to update the book, if they have read the book r completed the book by selecting the checkboxes. Depending on the checkbox selected

Screen 4: User has the ability to delete the book from the database, they will be prompt with a confirmation box, if “Yes” clicked, the book will be deleted, if “no” is clicked, user will be returned to the the book information screen..

Insert screen: When the user selects the add image on the screen 1 or on screen 2, a new intent will happen opening a new screen, here the user will be able to insert information into the database and select whether or not they have read the book and if the user has completed the book.

Insert Book Details

Name

Author

Category

Comment

ISBN

☐ Are you currently reading the book?

☐ Have you completed the book?

SUBMIT